Product Description

Strong textile for wiping specially engineered for industrial applications. Sontara disposable cloths are chemically resistant and among the toughest wipes on the market. They absorb several times their own weight in water and can soak up both grease and solvents. The cloths leave behind minimal lint and are soft enough for polishing tasks. The wipes are indirect food contact approved and contain no pollutants. Sontara disposable cloths are ideal for discerning users who want high performance, versatile non-wovens for all types of wiping.
